

Pre-Calculus

Mr. Gavaldon

Da Vinci School for Science & Arts • robertgavaldon@burnhamwood.org

EVERY DAY — in this order

1. Go to your assigned seat
2. Phone goes up (phone caddy)
3. Start the bellwork
4. We go over it together
5. Intro the new topic
6. You Try
7. Day work
8. Exit ticket

PHONES

Phones go up at the start, every day. Think of the movies — they ask you to put your phone away so everyone can focus. Same here. I'll ask once. After that: an email home, then a meeting with you, your parent, and admin. My goal is to never need that.

TUTORING & NOT FAILING

Fail a test → one week of mandatory tutoring (the tutoring department or me, on tutoring days). Tutoring is how we keep you from failing — that's the whole point. Seats are assigned; I set the chart.

Expectations

Respect • Responsibility • Quality of Work • Quality of Self

QUALITY OF WORK means

- You finish your work on your own.
- Classwork gets done in class, the day it's assigned.
- Still on THIS class? Don't work on other classes or activities.
- No AI in class, and no AI on tests. Use it to learn outside class if you want — tests are AI-free, so you have to actually know it.

NOT ACCEPTED

- Yelling • fighting • hitting or touching others
- Eating in class • cussing • out of uniform
- Not turning in work • not working during class
- No-showing your tutoring
- Popping up to move tables, or asking for the restroom every single day

Keep this in the front of your binder.
